Welcome and Introduction

This year the Catoctin Wildlife Preserve & Zoo will be hosting its first ever German Arts Festival, "Oompah Zoompah!". Music will be provided by Heidi und Heimat Echo, a popular entertainment group in many of the larger Oktoberfest celebrations. Held on the beautifully landscaped and wooded Preserve grounds among 100's of exotic animals from 6 continents on September 25th from 12pm to 4pm, this fun filled event will be our main fund raiser this year.

We will be joined by local artisans, fantastic caterers, lots of fun programs for children, adults and families and, of course, a Bier Garden. This is a great opportunity for your business to join us in support of wildlife preservation and education. Sponsorship opportunities are available on many levels and we would love to help present your business in the best possible light to our membership and guests.

The Catoctin Wildlife Preserve & Zoo has been a growing part of Frederick County since 1933. It is now under the management of Global Wildlife Trust, Inc. a 501(c) nonprofit organization dedicated to the preservation of wild animals worldwide and the conservation of all our local natural resources. Sharing a sponsorship for this event will provide a broader base of support for your business and create a feeling of loyalty with future business associates and customers for your business with our membership and guests.

Please take a moment to read the enclosed information regarding our sponsorships and the benefits of being a sponsor. Contact Susan Small, the Zoo's Assistant Director of Community Relations and Development, at 301-271-4922 ext. 10 with questions, or simply complete the attached Sponsorship Contract and mail it with your payment.

Again, thank you in advance for any consideration you may offer to this wonderful event and for supporting your local Wildlife Preserve and Zoo!

Best Regards,

Susan J. Small
